DON WANDS VIBRATING GLASS

A leader in glass dildos, Don Wands has added a series of glass vibrators to their collection, and we couldn't be happier. The powerful glass vibes, which are sturdy and dishwasher safe, come in smooth or nubbed varieties for the ultimate in pleasure. Since glass is non-porous, these vibes are safe to use with lube, and each one comes with a sample packet of silicone lube as well as two AA batteries to juice up your love life.

BO VIBRATING COCKRING

Most cockrings are little more than cheap throwaways or novelty toys with removable bullets, but the Bo brings some class to the cockring category. Lelo's Bo is a rechargeable ring made of high-quality silicone that's not only easy to clean but will last long after those battery-powered rings bite the dust. It charges quickly through a wall outlet and then offers up strong vibrations that will send you and your partner on your way to an explosive orgasm in no time. This is the gold standard of cockrings and a must-have item for any sexually adventurous couple.
