

OH OUI!

Forget raiding the produce drawer, the Oh Oui! is a much better piece of fuckable food. The hot-pink silicone banana is one of the most fun toys you'll find. While shaped like everyone's favorite fruit, the zero-calorie plaything is far more enjoyable. A seven-function bullet vibe powers the pink dildo and gives orgasms that no ordinary banana could. And unlike other fruit dildos, it's reusable, so you never have to worry about your toy going bad.

HAPPY HOOTERS

We'll confess that what first caught our attention was the name, but we have to admit that after giving it a try, it did indeed make our hooters happy. The aloe-based lotion feels cool as you apply it and leaves the sensitive skin of your breasts soft and supple and dry. Women who love having their tits sucked and played with will appreciate the way this moisturizes and refreshes man-handled breasts without leaving behind any slick, sticky residue.

GOOD HEAD SUCKERS

Want to give better blowjobs? Try one of these suckers before you start sucking and you'll be giving professional-grade head in no time. From cooling Blue Ice and warming Cinnamon to the numbing power of Blow Berry and the mouthwatering Sour Apple, there's a Good Head lollipop to improve everyone's oral skills. Each pop can be used multiple times, too, so you can blow him away more than once.

BODY & SOUL CONNECTION

This 10-function vibrator isn't just an exceptional sex toy, it's also a great massager. Its ergonomic design makes it easy to hang onto for hours of pleasure, and its dual silicone heads double your pleasure. The twin nubs work well with lube or massage oil for even more intense sensations, so no matter how you decide to connect, you'll be sure to enjoy it!
