

INTERCHANGEABLE CROP TOP

BDSM beginners may not want to invest in a whole collection of crops and paddles when they're just experimenting, so the Interchangeable Crop Top System is the perfect solution. There are a half-dozen compatible tips, from the classic crop to novelty shapes and even a feather tickler. The tips swap out easily, but stay firmly in place during playtime.

These and other products are available online at www.PenthouseStore.com or by calling 1-877-217-3436

KOKESHI DANCER

We love discreet sex toys, and the Kokeshi Dancer is one of the easiest to hide in plain sight. The sweet vibrators, designed to look like traditional Japanese dolls, seem innocent, but hidden under their painted kimonos are toys that are sure to make you come. Each waterproof doll offers three powerful—but quiet—vibration speeds, all capable of getting you off faster than the last!

G-SPOT SEEKER

The Seeker may be shaped like a C, but it hits the G-spot perfectly to give you an amazing O. The toy's internal arm is curved to seek out the G-spot and features two larger raised bumps for more stimulation; the external arm has two rows of smaller nubs for optimum clitoral stimulation as it rocks back and forth. Its ergonomic design lets your fingers curl as they would during digital stimulation, so there's no added strain—meaning you can play for hours, if your pussy desires!

These and other products are available online at www.PenthouseStore.com or by calling 1-877-217-3436

WHAT THE FUCK?

What the Fuck? is the raunchiest drinking game we've come across, and that's saying something. Game play involves answering incredibly absurd questions while the other players guess what you're going to say. Questions include things such as, "If someone offered you $100,000 to eat a cum sandwich, would you?" and "Which would you rather wear as a hat, a used diaper or a dog's severed head?" The game isn't for everyone, but if you're feeling brave, there's no better way to get to know your friends!

POP PLUGS

Whether you're new to anal play or you're an ass aficionado, there's a Pop Plug for you. Each plug is contoured for smooth penetration and removal, and the flared base makes it extra safe. A ring hangs from the base for easy removal (the sound the plug makes as it wiggles free—pop!—is what gives it its name). Anal beginners can start with the small, which is about the size of two thumbs. You'll have so much fun you'll work your way up to large in no time!

HOT LOVE

If you think there's nothing better than a nice, steamy sensual massage, then you'll love Hot Love, two palm-sized gel packs that, when activated, heat up to 129° Fahrenheit. The packs fit perfectly in your hand and bend to fit around any part that needs warming, and the smooth vinyl casing will slide easily along your partner's skin with a bit of oil. Even if you have the most honorable intentions, you're likely to get lucky after treating your partner to some hot love—and we can't see anything wrong with that!

Scan this code to visit PenthouseStore.com, then take 15% off your order with promotional code MARFOR

