Some celebrities get things they're known for—like their legs or ass—insured. Would you ever get your breasts insured?

'I've never actually given it any thought. Maybe I should!

You have incredible natural breasts. If you hadn't been born with such amazing assets, do you think that you would have gotten implants?

No. I don't really care for big boobs and used to wish mine were smaller. I LOVE small boobs!

A lot of adult stars these days are writing books. Would you ever consider writing a book about your time in porn?

I think my personal life would be a lot more intriguing than my business life! Even before I got into the adult business I was always told that my life story would make a great book or movie. At this time a book is not something I plan on doing, but never say never.

Of all the girls you've worked with, who's your favorite? Who haven't you worked with who's on your scene wishlist?

My fave to date is definitely Andy San Dimas. That girl can kiss like no other! As far as whom I haven't worked with yet that I want to is Sandy from Club Sandy. Thankfully she wants to work with me as well, so that will most likely happen in the very near future.

From your tweets, it seems like you're a pretty healthy eater. What's your one guilty pleasure food?

French fries are my fave, but I don't eat them that often.

Other than you, who do you think has the best breasts in the business?

I can't quite think of anyone in particular. Any pair of all natural B or C cup breasts gets an A+ in my book!

Do you have any kinks or fetishes that you enjoy in your personal life but haven't done on film?

I don't think so. I'm not all that crazy when it comes to my personal life. I just like to get fucked really hard!

Where do you see yourself 10 years from now?

I have absolutely no idea! This is actually one of my most hated questions because there's no way to know the future. Ten years ago I never would have guessed that I would be where I am today.

You're an amazing girl/girl performer. Have you ever dated a girl in your personal life?

I did casually date a girl before but I've really come to the realization that bitches be crazy! Ha ha ha! All jokes aside, I'm more satisfied in a relationship with a man than with a woman.

What kind of photos are your favorite to shoot as a model? What about as the photographer?

As both a model and photographer I love shooting glamour that leans more towards the artistic and fetish genres.
