

COMET WAND

We love glass dildos, but we love silicone toys, too. Sometimes it's hard to pick a favorite between them—but with the Comet Wand, we don't have to. This silicone-coated glass plaything has a sleek, ergonomic design, and it's angled to hit your G-spot every time. The large head will fill you the way you need, while the slimmer shaft will make thrusting easy.

THE DUCHESS

Think you've seen it all when it comes to rabbit-style vibes? Think again. Our favorite bunny of the moment is The Duchess. Instead of offering spinning beads or pulsing nubs, this one has a protruding G-spot pleasing nodule on the shaft and an external clitoral stimulator. Each component has five different patterns of vibration, and the controller at the base lights up for easy use under the covers.

MARCIA SENSOR VIBRATING VAGINA BALLS

What's better than a pair of sleek Ben Wa balls? Vibrating Ben Wa balls, that's what. The coolest thing about them is that these "vagina balls" have a light sensor, so they'll only start vibrating once they're inside your cunt. This makes insertion smooth and easy, prevents awkward button-pushing and protects the toy's battery life. This just might be the smartest sex toy we've ever met!

ENCOUNTER VEGAN LUBE

Vegans, rejoice! We've come across the perfect sex aid for all our tree-hugging, animal-loving readers. Reviewed and certified by The Vegan Awareness Foundation, these lubes contain no animal byproducts, aren't tested on animals, and are free of glycerin and paraben, making them safe for use by even the most sensitive pussies. You can choose a delicious flavor like strawberry, peach or watermelon or go for the flavor-free option. No matter which you choose, you're sure to have one hell of a sexy encounter.

RETRO POCKET ROCKETS

Not only will the Retro Pocket Rocket give you a more-than-adequate clitoral orgasm, this powerful one-speed wonder is the snazziest vibrator we've seen. How no one has made a rocket-shaped pocket rocket before is beyond us, but now that they have, we can't think of a single reason not to own one—or even two, since they come in a pair of awesomely retro color combinations.

RAM VIBRATING MASTER PUMP

Vibrating sex toys aren't just for women anymore. Every dude should have at least one device with a little power, like the Ram Master Pump. Though it looks like a penis pump, it's really much, much more. It has a 10-function bullet that's powerful enough to give your dick the appropriate buzz even through the plastic pump, and it comes with three different-sized cockrings so you can add to the pleasure—as if a vibrating penis pump isn't pleasurable enough.
